Trade Notice

Fiji Port Operations

Dear Customers,

Neptune Pacific Line / Pacific Forum Line wishes to advise that due to adverse weather conditions being experienced and a cyclone warning in place that all Fijian port operations have been suspended until further notice.

Fijian Ports Terminal Limited have advised as follows:

- 1.) All port operations will cease by 1800hrs this afternoon
- 2.) Vessel cargo operation is still suspended till further assessment at 0800hrs on Saturday 17th December

This has effected the port operations for the Capitaine Cook which is presently in Suva and whereby we undertake to keep you fully apprised of working arrangements.

Any further points of clarity please contact your local management team.

Please do not hesitate to contact your local management team.

Yours Sincerely
Pacific Forum Line (PFL)
