AUSPAC – NPDL Tahiti 2508N – Australian Port Rotation change

Dear Valued Customer,

We regret to advise that due to weather induced port closures in Newcastle and Sydney, the NPDL Tahiti Voy 2508N has incurred schedule delays.

She arrived in Newcastle on 30th March but has been unable to depart due to severe swells resulting in restricted vessel movements by the port authority. She is expected to depart today late evening.

To rectify her schedule, she will amend her port rotation on the Australian coast and call Melbourne before Sydney. The updated schedule is below with Sydney and Brisbane dates subject to berth availability.

Vessel	Newcastle	Melbourne	Sydney	Brisbane	Noumea	Lautoka	Suva
NPDL Tahiti 2508N	ETD 3-Apr	6-Apr	9-Apr	11-Apr	15-Apr	18-Apr	20-Apr

Thank you for your continued support and should you have any further questions, please contact your local PFL representative.

Sincerely,

PFL
