Australia to Fiji trade lane – BAF notification

Dear Valued Customers,

Pacific Forum Line (PFL) wishes to advise that following a monitoring of fuel prices over a five-week consecutive period this has resulted in an increase to our existing Bunker Adjustment Factor (BAF) on the Australia to Fiji trade lane.

Effective from the Melanesian Pride V.001N etd Melbourne 9th of March 2018, BAF will be applicable as follows;

- USD 80/teu -applicable to both dry and reefer

PFL will continue to monitor the fuel price and reserve the right to change, with suitable notice to the trade as applicable.

Should you have any questions please do not hesitate to contact our Customer Service Team.

Yours Sincerely

Pacific Forum Line www.pacificforumline.com
